BIBI Thought for the Week:

"To some, "total communication" has come to be perceived as limiting communication to signed and simultaneously spoken English, and as potentially excluding reliance on American Sign Language, which has dissimilar syntax and is the language of the Deaf community...in June 1992 the Board of Trustees approved a change in the School's policy so that the reference to "total communication" was deleted."

Charles I. Thompson, Jr., President and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Pennsylvania School for the Deaf

The ISD Campus Bulletin is published weekly throughout the school year.

Submissions should be sent to:

Basketball Homecoming Kudos

Homecoming Weekend was packed with wonderful moments. The ceremony honoring High School Supervising Teacher Bob Kovatch for his years of service to ISD as Head Basketball Coach created a wonderful feeling among those in the large crowd in Jacob Caskey Gymnasium Saturday night. Friends and family, including Bob's parents, witnessed the celebration which featured a large number of former ISD B'ballers who returned to honor his achievements and reflect on his influence on their lives.

A special crowd-pleaser featured the combined cheerleading talents of "the old-timers", present and future ISD squad members showcased through a number of stunts, cheers, and dances. It is obvious that ISD's long-standing reputation for excellence in cheerleading is well earned and the program is destined to continue to be among the best in the country well into the future! AAD Paulone extends a special Athletic Department thanks for the tireless efforts of Mary Kovatch and Sharon Baker to make the program world class!

Thanks to -

ISD alumnus Bob Downing for donating the TTY with printer featured in the Homecoming raffle.

I.U. Cheerleading Coach Jule Horine for donating athletic wear for the raffle.

Dave Shieb of Kessler Sports for donating a pair of Nikes for the raffle.

Ball State Participants Amy Rush, Larry Leonard, Katie Adams, Mia Cline, and Kristi Heyerly for their valuable help with Homecoming!

Nancy Hardwick, Kathy Walters, Teresa Schmidt, Carrie Hendrickson, Judy Evans, Steve Reis, Jess Blackwell, Jerry Thixton, Tony Cordero, Chris Walters, Steph Kent and Rachel Stone for their help with admissions and concessions.

Statistician Melba Bippus, Timers David Catt, and Jess Blackwell.

Vocational Supervising Teacher Linda Lloyd and Vocational staffers Dave Morpew, Carrie Hendrickson, and Maynard Steinberger and their students for their excellent work on the Homecoming Program Book.

ISD dietician Beth Ann Mahoney and the dietary staff for their efforts to make the weekend so enjoyable for participants.

Student Development Coordinator Debbie Fetzer and staff for all their efforts to ensure that ISD students and guests enjoyed all the social opportunities Homecoming weekend had to offer.

Health Center Supervising Nurse Cherie Coffey and staff, Dean of Girls Yvonne Catt and staff, and Dean of Boys Jonas Fenicle and staff for the long hours helping ensure a successful Homecoming weekend.

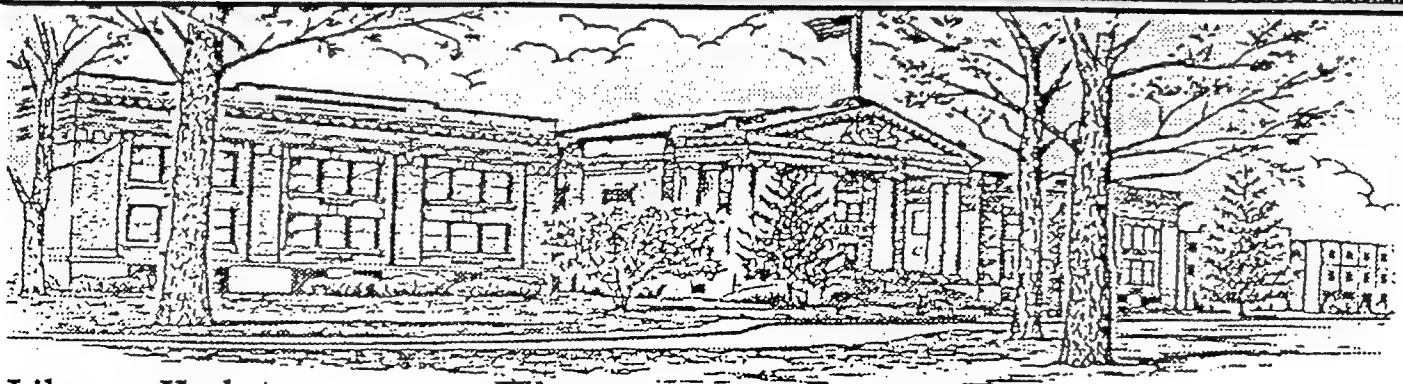

Cheerleading Coach Sharon Baker and ISD's Cheerleading Squads for the fantastic Pep Rallies!

A special thanks to Melba, Virgil, and Brian Bippus for the planning and execution of the reception honoring Bob Kovatch.

Sharon Baker, Rusty Crace, Tom Perkins, and of course Mary Kovatch for planning the Bob Kovatch Salute.

Student Employee of the Week

Jessica Jones works dinners at the Ponderosa Steakhouse at 8310 Craig Road in Castleton. She was an employee at Ponderosa last school year and did such a wonderful job that the staff were eagerly awaiting her return this fall when school began. Jessica works as a salad bar attendant. Her supervisors are very pleased with the high quality of her performance. Jessica works very hard, encourages good communication with her co-workers, maintains a friendly smile, and is punctual for work. Good work, Jessica!

Library Update

The Friends of the Library, a foundation for support of the Indianapolis- Marion County Public Library system, sponsors periodic book sales in the "old" Broad Ripple Library, 6219 North Guilford Avenue, Indianapolis. The first book sale of 1993 will be -

Friday, February 5th 6 - 8 pm (Preview Night)

Sunday, February 7th, 12 - 4 pm ("Bag of Books for a Dollar")

Thanks to Harold Larsen, who retired in 1977 after a 29-year tenure on ISD's faculty, for his generous annual contribution to ISD's libraries. This year for the 23rd year Mr. Larsen presented a check on November 17th in memory of his first wife, Martha, on the occasion of the anniversary of her birthday.

The office of ISD's Family Services Center (formerly the Preschool Library) is named for Martha, who was a Preschool teacher for many years. The generous contribution will be used to purchase special materials which directly benefit ISD's students.

On December 15th, the Library Media Center recognized the Ball State Participants, Mormon Church volunteers, and two other volunteers for their many hours of important library work by treating all to a pizza lunch. ISD appreciates them!

Special thanks to former ISD Assistant Superintendent Jess Smith for his excellent memory and past editorship. He has presented the library with the Fall, 1987 Deaf American. The issue features pictures and articles by Sue Galloway, a direct descendent of Laurent Clerc. The gift will be stored in a special file. Contact Librarian Linda Canty to examine this historic publication.

The Indianapolis Foundation, a community trust created in 1916 for the benefit of the citizens of Indianapolis, has donated $3,000 to ISD's libraries for the purchase of new reference books. ISD thanks the foundation for its generosity.

Reminder: PLEASE remember to put borrower's name on materials being returned to the library. This enables speedy reshelving by facilitating bookkeeping procedures. Cooperation is very much appreciated.

Teachers' Note - The library has listings of Winter 1993 programming for WFYI Channel 20, complete with teaching tips. Only one program offering is not closed-captioned. Topics include: Science, Geographical explorations and research, space, and endangered species. Contact Librarian Linda Canty for copies of the listings.

Health Facts - From the Files of ISD's Health Center

Lice Info

Pediculosis (lice) is rapidly becoming one of America's leading health problems. Head lice affects more than two million people yearly and anyone may be subject to its infestation. Head lice are easily passed between school children because of their close contact in classrooms and at play.

Lice are very small, wingless, and grayish in color and produce small, oval white eggs or "nits" that stick to hair shafts. These "nits" are not to be confused with dandruff which is flaky and easily removed. Once infestation occurs, it is easily spread by personal contact or from bedding, clothing, hair combs and brushes. The main symptom of head lice is scalp itching.

Students should be excluded from school once the lice are discovered in their hair. Return to school can be immediate once a pediculicide (lice killer) has been used. There are several over-the-counter treatments with appropriate instructions included available for use. Treatment should also include washing all clothing on the individual at the time the lice are discovered and the bed linens currently in use.

All classmates and other persons in close contact with the individual infested with head lice should be checked for lice or "nits". Therefore, it is necessary to inform family members to prevent re-infestation. Human lice do not live on animals so household pets are not a source of lice and do not need to be treated.

ISD students are sent to the Health Center and checked for head lice "nits" along with their classmates and dorm-mates. Appropriate treatment is conducted (either by the individual's parents or the Health Center Staff.) Again - return to school can be immediate once treatment has been completed.

Student Employee Receives Award

On January 19th 1993, Ethan Grubbs received an award from National City Bank where he works in the Remittance Processing Department as a Cooperative Education/Part-time employee. The award was given to Ethan for "zero errors" during the month of December. Along with the certificate, Ethan was able to select a gift from a wide variety of choices. Congratulations to Ethan for his accomplishments.
